All Set for Local Fair Wed. July 21

Arrangements have been completed for all phases of the forty-third annual exhibition and sports of the Didsbury Agricultural Society to be held in Didsbury next Wednesday, July 21st, and a full day of entertainment is in store for visitors. Judging of livestock and other classes of the exhibition will commence in the morning at 10 a.m. and exhibitors are reminded that their exhibits must be on the fair grounds before this time.

Entries, which close at 10 p.m. on Saturday July 17, should be more numerous than ever this year and the fair directors urge the people of the district to exhibit in as many classes as possible so as to make the local exhibition a success.

On the sports program there will be horse races, children's races, novelty events, etc. The baseball tournament will have four entries: Cremona, Calgary, Melton and Didsbury, and ball fans are assured of some local games.

On the grounds there will be many attractions, refreshment booths and a machinery display that is a new feature of the local fair.

In the evening there will be musical events and a hot dance in the new memorial arena.

Plan to attend the Didsbury exhibition and sports next Wednesday, July 21st.
